Vermilion Parish - a great meal and more!

You need to eat, so come to the "most Cajun place on earth" where we'll prepare a meal that will make you wish you had a bigger stomach! Feast on fresh seafood straight from our gulf waters or on a plate of crawfish étouffée made the same way grandma did. From over-stuffed poboys and raw oysters to boiled seafood, we have great food and more.

Over 150 years in the making, this bilingual, coastal parish is a multicultural blend steeped in history with a dash of "joie de vivre" finishing the perfectly seasoned mix. Travel along our back roads to see how our agriculture and aquaculture provide the basis for many of our local dishes. It's in this rural area where rice, sugarcane, cattle, crawfish and alligators are farmed then brought to our restaurants and in our homes. Our proximity to the Gulf of Mexico also means we have an abundance of fresh seafood for our amazing cuisine.

So when it's time to eat, sit down where the locals do and enjoy all the classic dishes cooked with ingredients from our own fields and waters. Come for a visit, your place at the table is ready!
