

Vermilion Parish - a great meal and more!

Ask around in south Louisiana where to get the best Cajun cooking and they'll answer Vermilion Parish. You have to eat, so why not come to the "most Cajun place on earth" where we'll prepare a meal that will make you wish you had a bigger stomach! Feast on fresh seafood straight from our gulf waters or on a plate of crawfish étouffée made the same way grandma did. From over-stuffed po-boys and raw oysters to boiled seafood, we have great food and more.

Over 150 years in the making, this bilingual, coastal parish is a multicultural blend steeped in history with a dash of "joie de vivre" finishing the perfectly seasoned mix. Travel along our backroads to see how our agriculture and aquaculture provide the basis for many of our local dishes. It's in this rural area where rice, sugarcane, cattle, crawfish and alligators are farmed then brought to our restaurants and in our homes. Our proximity to the Gulf of Mexico also means we have an abundance of fresh seafood for our amazing cuisine.

So when it's time to eat, sit down where the locals enjoy crawfish, alligator, oysters, shrimp and all the classics from our own waters. Come for a visit, your place at the table is ready!
